

I do not believe the FCC allow anyone to own more then one each of a particular media. What in the Universe do you think you are doing? Are you running this organization or trying to destroy it with what you are planning to do. I have been in the Broadcasting Business for over 30 years and I have yet to see such a ridiculous action as this. And how in gods earth can you allow companies like Clear Channel to dominant the radio waves?

Bill Dunbar
Patterson, Ia